

MyBlood

Red SAVES lives

Initiative by

Bleeding Room

This is the Bleeding room of My Blood Charitable blood bank. The couches are set up for the blood donors and this room is used for taking blood from the donors. Using the venipuncture method the healthy blood is taken and stored for further process.

MyBlood
Red SAVES lives

Component Separation Room

This is the Separation room at MyBlood Charitable blood bank. This room is maintained and equipped with all the required equipment for the separation of blood and blood components. Based on the properties the collected blood samples are segregated here.

MyBlood
Red SAVES lives

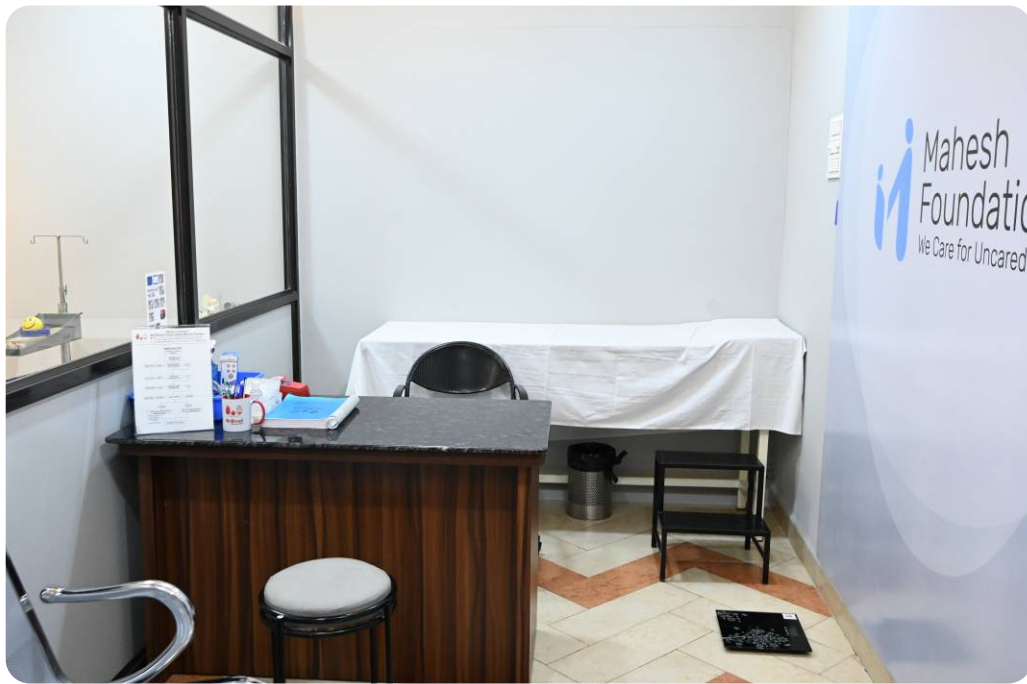

Storage Room

Blood Storage room of MyBlood Charitable Blood Bank. Here the collected blood samples are stored in a suitable condition. In order to maintain the proper and usable condition of blood samples, this storage room is equipped with all facilities.

MyBlood
Red SAVES lives

Medical Examination Room

This room is used for the medical assessment of blood donors. Before the blood donation, we conduct a detailed medical assessment of the blood donor and donors with good health status are preferred for blood donation.

MyBlood
Red SAVES lives

Lab I

The laboratories of MyBlood Charitable blood bank are well equipped with ultra modern facilities. These labs are used for the testing of collected blood samples and we make sure that donated blood, or blood products, are safe before they are used in blood transfusions and other medical procedures.

MyBlood
Red SAVES lives

Lab 2

This is laboratory 2 of MyBlood Charitable blood bank. Before the transfusion of collected blood, the blood samples undergo various tests in this lab and we ensure that recipients receive the safest possible blood products.

MyBlood
Red SAVES lives

Sterilization Room

Sterilization room at Myblood Charitable Blood Bank. This room is maintained for the sterilization process of collected blood samples. The room is equipped with sterilization equipment like autoclave and more.